1947, the 75th Anti-Aircraft Artillery Regiment (of the Spanish Army), which until 1944 was distributed between Algeciras and Huesca, was garrisoned in Tarragona. This regiment consists of two battalions, each composed of three batteries equipped with four Krupp 88-mm. guns. Each battery is protected by two simple large-caliber machine guns. The materiel of the units is modern and drawn by tractors.
